

MOTHER'S LAST PLEA

Was Unavailing and Her Three Stepsons Will Pay the Penalty.

Prison Arrangement Is Such That Each of the Convicted Men Will See His Own Flesh and Blood Go to Death.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Van Wormer, stepmother of the three brothers who are to be executed at Clinton, on Thursday, called at the executive chamber this morning to make a final appeal in behalf of her stepsons.

Gov. O'Dell declined to see her on the ground that he had fully considered the case and that an interview would be only a matter of useless pain to both. Mrs. Van Wormer accepted this decision as final, and will return to Kinderhook this afternoon.

Warden Geo. Deyo, of Clinton prison, who has the execution in personal charge, will not say, even if he has decided, in what order the brothers are to die; but he declared that there will be but one set of witnesses, and the work will be done with all possible expedition. The witnesses have been instructed to meet at the warden's office at 11 15 a. m.; the execution is to take place at or about noon, and probably, will not consume more than twenty minutes time.

Much thought has been given to seeking a means of separating the three, so that none of them would know when either of his brothers was taken to the chair, or whether he himself was first to go, but the arrangement of the prison and the location of the death house makes this impossible, as to conduct the condemned men through any corridor of the main prison would undoubtedly throw the other prisoners into an uproar. It has been determined, therefore, to place the three in the successive cells one side of the corridor in the death house, nearest the door of the execution room, and remove them in that order to their death.

The autopsy which will immediately follow the execution will be performed by the prison physician, Dr. Ransom, assisted by Dr. Spitzka, the well known brain specialist.

DIFFERENT PHASES OF ARMY PROBLEMS.

First Real Work of Troops Assembled at West Point Began Today When Strategical Points Were Put to Test.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Sept. 28.—The first real work of the troops assembled here for the army maneuvers began today. It centered on the solution of the various problems, which confront the advance and rear guards of an army in the neighborhood of an enemy in time of war. The different phases of the problem such as the protection by the advance guard of its own flank in a counter offering good cover to an attacking force; the protecting from a flank by mounted infantry and cavalry; and the fundamental requirements of discovery of the enemy with a time sufficient to allow the main body to be deployed in line of battle usually at least one hour were allowed to develop in natural fashion without premeditation after the opposing forces had been set in motion. The same relative problems were set before the rear guards of the blue and the brown army. The main bodies did not clash. Their part in the problem was limited to forming line of battle and fixing the positions so that the time consumed and the disposition of the troops could be passed upon by the umpire in judging the work of the advance and rear guards in protecting them from surprise. While they were being done, the advance guards were enjoying some lively skirmishing.

The points chiefly noted by the umpire in this being skill in taking cover, superior weight of fire accompanied by the least exposure of the bodies, taking the initiative proper reserve of magazine fire, etc.

HOLDS MANY GOOD PLACES.

Senorita H All Has Offices in Town Depopulated by Yellow Fever.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—A despatch to the Record Herald, from Linares, Mexico, says:

"Miss Manuela Flores is mayor, treasurer, secretary, attorney, clerk, and stenographer of this city. The officials having fallen victims to yellow fever. Senor Flores, was mayor, and was the first person to be attacked. Miss Manuela acted as her father's secretary. When he was stricken, the government appointed her acting mayor. So well has she filled the position, that she has been commissioned to remain in office until the expiration of her father's term."

The city had a population of 15,000, but now there are less than 3,000 residents, the others either having died or fled.

President Diaz has commended the work of Miss Flores highly, and it is stated that congress will vote her a medal for bravery during the epidemic.

SHAW GOES TO CHICAGO.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Secretary Shaw left for Chicago today. He will turn the last of the week. The secretary received a dispatch from President Roosevelt saying that the contemplated cabinet meeting will be held, owing to the fact that two members of the cabinet before Mr. Shaw, are in the city.

Cape Haytien, Hayti, Sept. 28.—The Austrian bark Blandina, Captain Rominach from Barbadoes and other ports for Fiume has been wrecked at the entrance of the Roadstead here. The crew were saved. The Blandina was of 791 tons and was built at Fiume in 1872. She was owned by H. De Padurich and Company, of Fiume.

PRESIDENT WILL RETURN

To Oyster Bay Early in the Summer Providing He Is Re-nominated.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 28.—President Roosevelt's summer sojourn at Sagamore Hill, was concluded today, when at 8:30 o'clock, he boarded a train en route to Washington. He has been absent from the capital for 13 weeks and two days, and returns in the expectation of remaining there, practically uninterruptedly, until next June.

When the president accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt and their children, Ethel, Archie and Quentin, arrived at the Oyster Bay station, he was greeted with cheers from a great crowd of the town folks, who had gathered to say farewell. The president acknowledged the greeting by tipping his hat and bowing, as he passed across the platform to his train, a "special" of two cars. The president and his family occupied the private car of President Baldwin, of the Long Island road. In addition to the president's family, the party included Mr. and Mrs. Loeb, members of the executive staff, representatives of the press associations and secret service officers.

As the train pulled out at 8:30, it was followed by the cheers of the crowd, while the president stood on the rear platform of his car, bowing acknowledgments.

It is the president's present intention to return to Oyster Bay early next summer. In the event of his nomination for the presidency, he will remain here throughout the summer and autumn until after the November elections. As yet he has perfected no plans for the presidential campaign. He has no intention of participating actively in it. It is likely, however, that he will deliver some addresses here.

WILL INVADE BABYLONIA.

University of Chicago Will Send Expedition for Purpose of Making Excavations.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 28.—"Babylonia" not "Babylon" is the seat of President Harper's interest in the "Orient." This is the assertion of one of the authorities of the University of Chicago relative to the recent Turkish arrangements. It quelled a sensation started in the university campus by a report from Berlin that Dr. Harper had been duped by the sultan of Turkey.

Prof. Robert Francis Harper, brother of President Harper, will be the director of the expedition of the University of Chicago to Babylonia. The professor says today:

"The report from Berlin that President Harper of the University of Chicago has made application for Tel Ibrahim is incorrect."

"Neither has application been made for Babel, where the Germans have been excavating. It would seem from the report that Babylonia has been confused with the country of Babylon. It is scarcely necessary to add that Dr. Harper was acquainted with the site where excavations are being conducted. Application has been made by the University of Chicago for a site further south in Babylonia."

The name of the city applied for will be announced as soon as the firman arrives from the sultan.

DAMAGE FROM FOREST FIRE

Which Threatened Northeastern Part of the State of Maine Alayed by Rain.

Bangor, Maine, Sept. 28.—Threatened damage from forest fires in the northeastern part of the state has been averted by a heavy fall of rain, during last night. Dispatches from various points in the threatened area today indicate that the rain checked the flames, which soon died out as the storm continued.

MRS. DAVIS IS BETTER.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, passed a comfortable night, and her condition today is much improved. Mr. J. A. Hayes, her son-in-law, and his son have arrived at Castle Ida. Her relatives and friends are now anticipating her recovery.

IDENTITY DISCLOSED.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 28.—A government sea coast message from Currituck to the Norfolk Observer removes all doubt as to the identity of the wreckage ashore off Coffee Islet. Divers today boarded the upturned hulk and they report that it consists of 54 feet of quarter deck with some connecting pipes, fragments of nets, corks and a fine rake. The netting and cork floats show the craft was a fisher and the missing steamer Beatrice from Cape Charles is the only vessel by that name and type missing. Nothing has been learned as to the fate of her crew.

WILL NAME TICKET.

Boston, Sept. 28.—About 300 delegates of the socialist party of America assembled here today to hold their convention for the nomination of a full state ticket. Chairman Cary of the state committee, called the convention to order.

MADE SPECIAL AGENT.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Burton R. Parker, of Detroit, Mich., has been appointed special agent of the treasury department, succeeding W. S. Chance, of Canton, Ohio, who has been transferred to St. Paul. Mr. Parker has been in the service since 1890.

EX-CONVICT MADE EFFORT

To Kidnap One of Governor's Children. Guards Placed About Home.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 28.—The guard around the governor's mansion has been increased as it is feared that another attempt to steal one of the governor's children is to be made. The four smaller children are not permitted to leave the house unless they are accompanied by an elder member of the family.

The penitentiary is being searched for traces of the plot that is supposed to have been formed for the purpose of getting revenge upon the governor. The police have a description of the ex-convict who made the attempt and are searching for him.

TILLMAN IS FACING JURY.

Best Talent in the South Will Defend Him Against Murder Charge.

Lexington, S. C., Sept. 28.—J. H. Tillman, former lieutenant governor of South Carolina, was arraigned in the circuit court for Lexington county today under an indictment charging him with the murder of N. G. Gonzales, editor of the Columbia State. The trial is being conducted on behalf of the state by Solicitor Thurmond, assisted by five other attorneys, while eleven lawyers, with Judge Croft as chief counsel, appear for the defense. Judge Frank B. Gary is presiding.

The court room was fairly filled but not crowded when Solicitor Thurmond announced that the state was ready to proceed with the trial. The empanelling of a jury was begun immediately after the arraignment, the names being drawn from a box by a six year old boy in accordance with custom.

It became manifest at the very outset that every inch of ground is to be vigorously contested during the trial. The case opened with the expectation that a jury could be secured by 3 o'clock p. m. today when the taking of testimony could be proceeded with, but only one juror was secured during the first hour. The defendant occupied a seat close to his attorneys and was an attentive listener to the arguments of counsel in points raised.

CHIEF TOLD THAT UNLESS

Men Arrested for Complicity Are Released Jail Will Be Blown.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 28.—A special to the Despatch from Helena, Mont., says:

"In addition to threats which have been made against the Northern Pacific railroad, by a gang of dynamiters who demand $50,000, Chief of Police Travis has received notification from what is believed to be the same gang, that unless the two men arrested in connection with the first outrage at Livingston, are not released, the city jail will be blown up."

"Detectives are searching the country, trying to locate the gang, and the ton of dynamite stolen from a warehouse in this city a week ago."

"The last ultimatum to the railroad expires Oct. 4, and the one to Chief Travis ends today. The railroad tracks are being carefully guarded against further outrages."

FIRST SECRETARY, CHINESE LEGATION

Has Arrived in San Francisco and Will Investigate Charges Made Against Kim Yung, the Late Secretary.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 28.—Chow Tax Chin, first secretary of the Chinese legation in Washington has arrived here. He says he has come to this city to thoroughly investigate the charge made against Kim Yung, late secretary of the local consulate. The family of the secretary is said to be greatly incensed at the treatment accorded him by the police of San Francisco.

Secretary Chow says that he is not in a position to state what action will be taken by the minister in Washington, when he receives the complete report of the affair. He is convinced, however, that the minister will demand a searching inquiry be made by the Chinese and white authorities in this city.

OFFICE BUILDING

Was Target for Rocks Thrown by Men Who Wanted Their Money.

Exciting Scenes About Plant of Consolidated Lake Superior Company. Many Shots Fired by Defenders of the Buildings Against Angry Workmen.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 28.—A News special from Sault Ste Marie, says: A mob of the discharged employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior, after being put off with promises when they demanded their promised wages this morning, broke away from all restraint a large force of special police could exert and smashed every window in the magnificent office building of the company in the Canadian Soo, charged upon the street cars and demanded that the conductors and motormen join them and were only prevented from doing further damage by a clever ruse of one of the company's officials who turned in a fire alarm to divert attention. Almost every man in the crowd was armed and in the ugliest kind of a mood.

A determined assault was made upon one of the entrances of the building but the door was defended strenuously by those inside who fired a large number of shots, none of which, however, took any effect. The hardware store of W. H. Plummer & Co., was broken into last night and every gun and revolver in stock was stolen, together with all the ammunition that could be found.

The authorities have called out the local company of militia and have telegraphed an urgent request to Toronto for both the regulars and more militia. The local militia company is small and totally inadequate to cope with the situation.

Orders have been issued to close all the bars in the Canadian Soo, but at noon today none of the saloons had been closed.

SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL WILL EXPERIMENT ON

Twenty Men Detailed From Army Corps to Ascertain to What Extent Economy in Diet Can Be Practiced.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—Prof. R. H. Chittenden, director of the Sheffield Scientific school announced today that through the courtesy of Secretary Root and Surgeon General O'Reilly of the army, the war department will co-operate with the Sheffield laboratory in a physiological study of the minimum amount of protein or albuminous food required for the maintenance of health and strength under ordinary conditions of life. In carrying out this purpose, twenty men detailed from the hospital corps of the army arrived in New Haven today under the charge of Lieut. Wallace DeWitt, assistant surgeon of the U. S. army, and three non-commissioned officers. The scientific school has fitted up a house on Vanderbilt square where the men will be housed and cared for during the period of the investigation, doubtless for about nine months.

In this study there are no special theories involved and no special systems of dietetics, but the object is especially aimed at is to ascertain experimentally whether physiological economy in diet cannot be practiced with distinct betterment to the body and without loss of strength and vigor. There is apparently, says Prof. Chittenden no question that people ordinarily consume much more food than there is any real necessity for, and that this excess of food is in the long run detrimental to health and defeats the very objects aimed at. It is with a view to gather as many facts as possible on this subject that the study in question is undertaken.

The investigation is a continuation, on a larger scale of earlier observations made in the Sheffield laboratory last year.

ARSON FIEND CAUSED PANIC.

Hundreds of Lives Imperiled, and Property Worth Thousands Endangered.

New York, Sept. 28.—Five fires ignited. This is the only possible explanation.

INMATES

Fled to Roof and Escaped the Encompassing Flames.

New York, Sept. 28.—Fire this morning in a five story building on Fifth avenue, caused a panic among a dozen persons, who were asleep there. The blaze started in the second floor, and spread upward so quickly that the inmates fled to the roof from which they were able to reach the roofs of adjoining buildings, and all escaped injury in jumping, though much valuable property was left behind. Several artists had quarters in the building, and quite a number of valuable paintings were lost. Several conversations were carried out, by their owners, who left their clothing behind.

New York, Sept. 28.—Five fires were started in the cellar of as many flat houses in Harlem, during Sunday, by incendiaries. In each case, it was found upon investigation, kerosene had been used to hasten the work of the flames. Hundreds of lives were imperiled and property worth thousands of dollars endangered. The burning early Sunday morning, of the church of the Arch Angel, in St. Nicholas avenue, also is believed to have been the work of fire bugs.

When the rumor of fire bugs spread through the eastern section of Harlem where all the fires were discovered, terror prevailed among the flat dwellers. Scores of policemen in citizen dress, are now at work in the district, but no trace of the miscreants has yet been secured. In some cases, it was found that old mattresses had been dragged into the basement of the building, soaked with kerosene, and igation with Russell Sage. His decision will confirm the title of homestead settlers to about 25,000 acres of

the choicest land in Swift, Big Stone

Russell Sage, as trustee of the old

Court Decides Against Russell Sage and in Favor of Farmers.

Appleton, Minn., Sept. 28—Judge Quale has announced that he will decide in favor of the settlers in the litigation with Russell Sage. His decision will confirm the title of homestead settlers to about 25,000 acres of
the choicest land in Swift, Big Stone
and Stevens counties and holds that Russell Sage, as trustee of the old
Hastings and Dakota Railway Co., has no claim whatever thereto. The litigation involves the title to fully $1,000,000 worth of property, representing the homes and fortunes of 150
farmers.

New Offices.
The ticket and freight soliciting departments of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton R. R., which have been located in the Chamber of Commerce building, in Cincinnati, for the past fifteen years, have removed to the corner of Fifth and Walnut, in the new Traction building. This building, which is the second of the so-called
"sky-scrapers" in that city, is a magnificent one. The location is on the public square in the busiest corner of the city. The offices are furnished in mahogany, with tile floor, and contain all modern improvements. The character of the furniture and the magnificent frontage of fifty-five feet on Fifth street, will enable them to show their friends what is now and will likely be for some time, the finest railroad soliciting office in the country.

JOHN H. CLARKE WILL ADDRESS THE PEOPLE OF ALLEN COUNTY OCT. 6th.

DEATH

Claims Well Known Citizens

South Lima

B. McKinnon and Mrs. Nancy Wilson

Answer the Last Call and Pass to the World Beyond.

Weddings, a Pair of Accidents, Surprise Party and Personal Mentions Follow This Head—Two Fires.

Frank B. McKinnon, who has been suffering from Bright's disease for a period of eight weeks, passed to the world beyond, Saturday afternoon at 10 o'clock. Deceased was born in Hardin county, O., November 9, 1852, being years, 10 months and 17 days old. He was a painter by trade. A wife, Mrs. R. E. of Celina; Carson, Guy V., and Ernest V., and four daughters, Mrs. W. E. Hess, Mrs. W. K. Kibby, Mrs. M. W. Kibby, of east Kibby street, Bessie and Iris Fern, survive him.

The funeral was held this afternoon at two o'clock at the South Side church of Christ Rev. Clarence Mitchell, assisted by Revs. Sims and Cunningham. Interment was made in the old cemetery.

The deceased was married July 30, 1901, to Miss Minerva Laycock, nine children blessing the union. One of the children, a daughter, Addah, preceded her father in death March 2, 1903.

A brother, Scott McKinnon, of Ohio, John L. Neal, Will and John Neal, of Roundhead, Mrs. W. Kibby, a sister, of Elida, and C. N. Sheets, of Waynesfield, and A. F. McKinnon, a cousin of Lake, attended the funeral.

Aged Lady Dies.
This morning at 5.30 o'clock the remains of Mrs. Nancy Wilson, who died Saturday afternoon about 10 o'clock of neuralgia of the stomach at the home of her son, C. J. Singer, on McPherson avenue, were shipped to the C. H. & D. to Ashland, Ky.

lucky. Deceased was a Virginian by birth. Two children survive the deceased lady: Charles J. Singer and Mrs. Theo. Merrill, who resides at Wyandot, Va. Mrs. Wilson was 75 years old.

Pretty Wedding.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Dawson, 534 south Elizabeth street, when Clyde A. Dawson took Miss Pearl Haines to be his wife. Rev. George Lord, of the First Baptist church, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson stood up with the happy pair, while Miss Grace McPherson, of Waynesfield, furnished music throughout the ceremony.

Quite a company of guests were in attendance, and among the out of town guests were: Ross Sproul, George Sproul and Mrs. Jane Sproul. A sumptuous wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Fooled 'Em All.
On July 17th, the Detroit Southern gave an excursion to Detroit, under the auspices of Epworth church, and among the crowd to the lake city were Howard Treat, of west Wayne street, an employee of the Buckeye Pipe Line Co., and Miss Bertha E. Keifer, of south Pine street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Keifer. When this young couple reached Detroit, they gave the rest of the excursionists the slip, and went over into Windsor, Canada, hunted up a preacher, Rev. D. H. Hind, and were married. The marriage was kept a secret until last Saturday, when the pair brought it best to quit playing single, and owned up.

A Beautiful Wedding.
At the home of the bride's parents at 470 south Union street, Sunday at 1 o'clock, occurred a very pretty little wedding, the contracting parties being two of Lima's popular young people, Mr. Oliver J. Rumbaugh and Miss Eva Maude Spornhauer. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Brundage, of the First Church of Christ, using the ring service. The ceremony was conducted in the presence of about forty guests. Those from out of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. David Gidger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kinkade and family, and W. H. Kinkade of Bluffton; Charles E. Reites, of Findlay; Mrs. Anna Kinkade and daughter Grace, Mrs. C. C. Wagoner, of Kansas City. The young bride was beautifully attired in a blue silk gown draped in rich medallions, bearing a bunch of bride's roses. The groom wore the conventional black. They were the recipients of many valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Rumbaugh will take up their abode on Harrison avenue where they will be at home to their many friends.

More to Come.
It beats the band how North Lima fellows come over here and rob us of our South Side lassies. Not far distant the wedding of a North Lima man to a west Kibby street young lady will occur, and it is hinted that one north West street (near Grand avenue) young man wanders over to Second street, where he calls on his soon-to-be bride.

More Bad Luck.
If there is a man in Lima who meets with more accidents than J. F. Drennen, of south Elizabeth street, no one has run across him. The professor has been injured a half dozen times in less than a year, and Saturday he was severely burned both hands that he can not use them for some time.

For several weeks Mr. Drennen has been planning a visit to his old home in West Virginia, and intended to start Sunday morning, but late Saturday afternoon he mistook a pan of gasoline, which his wife had been using to clean clothing with, for a pan of water, and sitting it on the stove proceeded to wash his hands. The "pesky" stuff soon ignited, and his hands and forearms up to the elbows were a mass of flames. Besides the pain suffered, Mr. D. is a much disappointed man, but yesterday he started on his way to Virginia, even though both arms were swathed in cotton. He says he will make the best of it, but wonders what will happen next.

New Officers.
Yesterday the Beulah M. E. Sunday school elected officers for the ensuing year. Mr. Oliver Kunkleman was chosen superintendent; E. D. Arnold, assistant superintendent; Blair Cameron, secretary; Mrs. Kunkleman, treasurer; Anna Armstrong, librarian; Laura Baldwin, organist, and E. T. Bowditch, chorister. There will be services every Sunday night also, as Rev. Crist has moved to south Pine street in order to be with them regularly.

In Merry, Childish Glee.
Chaperoned by Mrs. Harry Haddock, Mrs. Mackstroth and Mrs. M. A. Springer, about twenty pupils of Miss Goodenow's room, D grammar, Pine street school, met at the Haddock home on east Kibby street, Saturday afternoon, and helped to make the day a pleasant one for Miss Grace, who was celebrating her tenth birthday anniversary.

Revival Services.
Revival services every evening are being held in the Christian Alliance church on south Main street, between Elm and Eureka streets. Rev. L. T. Griffiths will preach every night this week. A trained choir will be in attendance. All are invited.

Tragedy Averted.
"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound and well." Every body ought to know it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by H. F. Vorkamp, corner Main and North streets, drugist. Price 50c and $1.00. Considerably Broken Up.
We learn from one of the popular novels that the hero had some exciting experiences.

He broke into a run.
He broke out in anger.
He broke the silence.
He broke the spell.
He broke into a smile.
He broke his resolution.
He broke down.
He broke from the scene.
He broke from the opening.
He broke off in the middle of his sentence.

He was a proud cuss, though, and would probably have bitterly resented it if anybody had referred to him as a brakesman.

G. M. HENRY, G. P. A.

Very dull.
"Oh, yes, I've opened an office," said the young lawyer. "You may remember that you saw me buying an alarm clock the other day."

"Yes," replied his friend. "You have to get up early these mornings, eh?"

"Oh, no. I use it to wake me up when it's time to go home."—Philadelphia Press.

The sedentary indoor life of winter is conducive to a sluggish condition of blood and eliminating organs—poisons and waste matter are retained after they should be thrown off.

Hagee's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil (with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda) should be taken in cases of winter sluggishness. It makes healthy vigor, enriches the blood, tones up all the organs and feeds impoverished nerves. It cures the conditions which cause weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption, catarrhal conditions, nervousness, indigestion, mal-assimilation.

Hagee's Cordial is a thin, palatable fluid cordial, pleasant to taste and smell.

THE WEATHER.

Washington, Sept. 28.—For Ohio:
Fair, continued cool tonight. Tuesday,
fair and warmer.

When Mayor Johnson goes into "the enemy's country," he leaves it friendly to him.

The democratic platform is a broad instrument, but it is not wide enough to accommodate monopoly.

The more republican oratory the average citizen listens to this year, the less he knows about the issues of the campaign.

The voter who does not believe in the equitable distribution of the burdens of taxation will vote for Hanna
and Herrick early if not often.

Mr. Hanna has a good title to the name of boss outside of Cuyahoga county. He appears to be a prophet without honor in his own country.

If there is any monopoly not supporting Hanna and Herrick we shall be glad to have its address left at this office for purposes of identification.

The crowds that are flocking to Mayor Johnson's tent are living evidences that the republican scorn of "Johnsonism" has turned to apprehension.

It was a philosopher in the late democratic state convention who remarked that he would prefer to have the "Red Devil" in front of him
rather than behind him.

The republicans of Ohio are so anxious to discuss foreign issues this year that the more national of such a state issue as taxation causes them to use expressions not fit for publication.

If Mr. Hanna doesn't do better in the state than he has been able to do where he is best known in recent years, he will never have a chance to buy another seat in the United States senate.

The indications multiply tending to show that there is a steady increase in the number of republicans who have self respect enough to resent the prostitution of their party in favor of bossism and monopoly.

The republican opening at Chillicothe looked very much like all the recent events of the same kind in the same party. The patriot who had enjoyed "a free ride for nothing" was everywhere in evidence.

The man who wants to ask questions of Mayor Johnson is not as numerous in this campaign as he was in the last.
He obtained some experience in 1902
which now teaches him that discretion
is the better part of valor.

It is not expected that the enemies of home rule in Ohio will vote the democratic ticket this year, but if all the friends of home rule vote the ticket the remainder of the population will not be worth considering.

The Johnson audiences are not hampered by the democratic candidate. They come of their own volition and pay their own expenses. That is the difference between a Johnson meeting and a republican "opening."

John H. Clarke was nominated for senator because he was known to be an honest fearless man, rather than because he was recognized as a great orator. His oratory, however, is now a factor of the democratic campaign that cannot be overestimated.

It is not surprising that General
Dick is unable to exhibit any enthusiasm over the Herrick candidacy. A man who has been run over by the Hanna machine can hardly be expected to cheer the object of his downfall
as it disappears in the distance.

It is said that republican contributions from state and federal officials are not coming in this year as rapidly as usual. It is natural that they should begin to think it time for Hanna and Herrick to swing the G. O. P.
in this state out of the abundant resources of their own millions.

What would become of the attorney general's office if Wade H. Ellis, the tool of Cox should be elected to fill it, can better be imagined than described.
No greater disaster could befall the honest business interests of this state
than the election as attorney general of the man who did the fine work in the enactment of the Cox code.

The democratic party is the natural defender of the rights of property as well as of the rights of individuals.
That is the reason why the Ohio democracy this year stands for reform in taxation, which means that all property rights should be better protected than now and that all property would stand on an equal footing before the law.

Has John D. Conrath deserted his first love? Last Friday, the prohibitionists of the county gave him the nomination for sheriff, and for just twenty-four hours, he stuck to the willows, and then came the announcement through Hanna's local organ that Mr. Conrath had been placed in the republican ticket for sheriff. This action on the part of Mr. Conrath is hardly in accord with his former boldly defined position.

Champ Clark of Missouri is admitted to be one of the most brilliant and incisive political writers and orators in this country, and this is the view he expresses of Tom Johnson:
"Buckeye democrats did a good day's work for themselves, for democracy in general and for the country in adopting the right sort of a platform and in nominating that great democrat, Tom L. Johnson, for governor.
He ought to be elected, and if elected governor, he is almost certain to be nominated and elected president of the United States, an office which he would honor and adorn. Tom Johnson is one of the most brilliant and remarkable characters of this age. He is in the flower of his years, and while he has already attained great eminence and distinction, he is just beginning his great career on the national stage. No man in America has a more splendid future. A Kentuckian by birth, a democrat by nature, a multi-millionaire by his own exertion, honest as the day is long, in thorough sympathy with the masses, patriotic to the core, he will make a great governor and a great president."

WHAT IT MEANS.

There is one plank in the democratic state platform that is democratic in the fullest and broadest sense—Democratic in lineage and education, and democratic "from away back," to use a colloquialism.

This is the resolution relating to the improvement of the Ohio river and the preservation and restoration of the canal system of Ohio, especially the latter.

It was the canal system that made the great state of Ohio what it is,
that is to say, made it possible to be what it is today. It originated with and was pushed to a successful conclusion by democrats is legislators and democratic state officials.

The meaning of this canal system was, as John Brough, who once was the democratic state auditor, so well said is a public address, "the means whereby the state lived an hundred years of growth and development between 1830 and 1855, and was thus enabled to start even in the race with the old states when the epoch of new things came with the last half of the 19th century."

Now what was the importance of the canal system originally? That, through its connections, it opened up a highway of transportation between the rich valleys, valuable forests and natural products of Ohio, and tide water at New York. It furnished a line of transportation that made it possible to sell the products of the Ohio valley in the markets of Europe,
which had theretofore been impossible.

We are prone to look lightly on the original importance of the canal system. And yet from the very moment of its inauguration it multiplied property values in the state from 5 to 20 times each 12 months as shown by the state statistics and especially the state auditors' contemporaneous reports.

In due course of time, and at no distant day, the isthmian canal will be constructed. That will create such a change in the world's commercial currents that the tide water of the south and the southwest will be 10 times more important to Ohio than the tide water at New York, or any other eastern point.

We ought to begin to prepare now for what is coming; to get ready to send and receive our tonnage to and from the far east and the far west direct through an improved canal system by way of the Ohio and the Mississippi, at a rate so cheap and by a transportation system so capacious as to give this valley the command of the situation.

With the isthmian canal completed and the Ohio river improved, as it readily may be, so as to be navigable the year round, and with these the canal system of the state restored and modernized, the products of Ohio would be practically on the southern tide water. Nor is that all. The statesmen of New York see what is coming and intend to spend $100,000, 600 to enlarge the Erie canal, so as to tap our resources on the north, by the water line, thus insuring the double advantages of ports and transportation competitors.—Columbus Citizen.

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF EXPENSE.

Chairman Charles P. Salen, of the democratic executive committee, in a public letter, suggested to chairman Charles Dick, of the republican executive committee, that a statement of expenses of the campaign be published by each party, under oath, on the Saturday before the election in November.

This was a very proper suggestion,
and it carried out would do a great deal to destroy the impression that a boodle campaign is being conducted.
Mr. Dick declined to enter into this arrangement. He dare not do it. The plans are already laid by the republican executive committee to spend a vast sum of money in the campaign and to buy the senatorship for Mr.
Hanna, if it can be had. Dick does not desire the public to know what it costs.

The proposition of Chairman Salen
simply takes the people into the confidence of the committee and furnishes them with information to which they have a perfect right. Too long has it been understood that the senatorship in Ohio is up for sale, and that boodle campaigns must be conducted to obtain it.

If Mr. Dick intended to conduct a fair and open campaign and was not prepared to spend a large amount of money, he would be very willing to make the statement which is proposed. He would, in fact, be proud to show to the people exactly what his committee had done. But Dick knows that his strength is in money and that it is going to be necessary to spend vast sums to carry on his campaign.

He dare not show the people what he is doing.

It is a very cheap bluff to say that the Garfield law was "repealed" through a bill introduced by a democratic member of the legislature. Everybody knows that the Garfield law was a farce and a failure. But the proposition made by Mr. Salen is very different. It would place before the people the expenses of the two great parties of the state in the struggle, which is now on, and let the people
judge whether they are legitimate and proper.

At any rate, Mr. John H. Clarke, who is Mr. Hanna's opponent in the race for the senate, declares that he will make a statement of all his expenses and will see that it is published just before election. There can be no law which will compel Mr. Hanna or his man Dick to do the same. But the people will understand that the democrats are making a campaign on principle and are not trying to buy the senatorship or any other office.

GOOD STRONG KICK.

The favoritism shown the Third regiment by Dick and Governor Nash in always selecting it as display stock
on all public occasions, will not down.
The Dayton Journal, the leading republican organ of Dayton, takes up the cudgel and this is what it says.

"The Journal would like to get at the solution of a certain problem, namely: 'In view of the undeniable
fact that the Third regiment, O. N. G., is primarily the oldest regiment in the state, is the senior regiment of the state militia organization; that it has the senior colonel; that it has the three senior captains and the senior first lieutenant, it would like to know why the Eighth regiment (from General Dick's section) was selected for the Dewey celebration three years ago; was chosen to serve on the Mc-Kinley memorial occasion in Washington to represent the O. N. G. at the St. Louis dedication of buildings, and has been recently designated to serve in a representative capacity at the maneuvers to be celebrated at West Point, Ky.' The Journal insists on an explanation of these mysterious coincidences, and on behalf of the Third regiment will not be satisfied with a peremptory military order.

In addition to the above, the Dayton Journal also fired the following hot shots from its galling gun:

What kind of meat doth the Eighth regiment feed on that gives it such strutting airs?

If you want to see fun, gory mander
Dick into the Third and Fourth districts, where the Third regiment has the say.

Col. Mead knows how to make a personal impression on the governor.
He left his trademark on that signi-fatory's conscience.

Dick may save his bacon—a not misused term—but what does he propose to do to help the candidates in '04.
Third and Fourth districts this fall?
Does he care?

Why did not Gov. Nash disband the Eighth regiment after the Canton episode? He plainly expressed his disgust and his wish. This is a good time to do 'poetic justice' to the state militia.

The chairman of the state republican executive committee is supposed to represent the party in the state of Ohio. When he deliberately uses that influence to promote the ambitions of a military organization covering his own congressional district, he is no longer fit for any position within the gift of the party. Dick should be replaced by somebody who can see over the eminences of Summit county.

CHILDREN FOUND DYNAMITE TORPEDO.

They Lighted a Fuse Attached to It
and Three Were Injured.

Yesterday afternoon, a young lad named Parks, son of the well known Everyman, and four other children named Elmer and George Pickering and Clarence and Clara Thomas, found a dynamite torpedo, of the kind used to explode nitro-glycerine shots in oil wells, and after playing with the dangerous toy for sometime, they emptied a portion of its contents out and then lighted a fuse attached to the remainder. As a result of the explosion that followed, the Thomas boy had three holes torn in the flesh of his right leg, from one of which a piece of tin the size of a silver dollar, was afterwards taken, and had a gasb cut in his right eyelid. Elmer Pickering had his left leg and left arm injured and George Pickering had one of his feet injured.

The Thomas boy was the most seriously injured and after being attended by a physician, was removed to his home near Elm and Main streets.

The children claim they found the torpedo in a pile of rubbish at the rear of the Park's livery barn at Market and Central avenue.

Recovery Promised for Brakeman Forrest

Who Was Injured a Week Ago at Ottawa.

There Was a Moment When the Grim Monster Hovered Very Near and Forrest's Escape
Was Miraculous.

J. L. Forrest, brakeman on the C. H. & D., is recovering nicely from the effects of an accident which occurred at South Ottawa, last Monday. That he was not killed, he owes to his presence of mind, but he did not escape without injuries which temporarily disabled him.

Forrest was standing on the rear of the car, with several between him and the caboose, when the two sections broke in two and then came together again, with a jolt which threw the brakeman between them. He fell in such a position as to enable him to grasp the drawbars, and managed to save himself from falling under the wheels.

Conductor Barnett was in charge of the train, and when the break came, a stop was made for water, where the engine was standing, when the broken section caught up and smashed into it. Forrest struck on his head, but retained consciousness, and he also suffered a number of severe body bruises. He was left at Ottawa, for treatment, and returned, after a few days at home, to have the attending physician dress his injuries.

MARKETS.

New York, Sept. 23.—Last week's liquidating was resumed at the opening of today's stock market. Extreme weakness was shown by steel securities, all of which went to new low records. The five per cent. bonds selling down to 63 1/2, and the common stock to 15 in the first hour. The traction shares also showed pronounced heaviness and a number of the higher class railway shares made declines of one point and over. One of the early features was a three point break in Louisville and Nashville. Metropolitan Street Railway, at 10 1/2, touched the lowest price reached in years. The selling movement came from all parts of the room, and was doubtless inspired in large measure Brokers reported large sales for Philadelphia, Pittsburg and Middle West accounts. Efforts to rally the market soon after the opening and at other times during the early session proved unsuccessful.

New York, Sept. 23.—Prices broke sharply from Saturday's level, a gain of 1-8 in Union Pacific being the solitary exception. Louisville and Nashville dropped 3/4 and then rallied 1/2. The local traction stocks were all weak. Metropolitan St. Ry. falling 1/4, Manhattan 1-4, and Brooklyn Transit 1/4. There were running sales of 4,000 shares of U. S. Steel, pfd, at 60 5/8 to 61, compared with 61 1/2 and the common stock and the second mortgage bonds opened at new low records.

The former at 15 5/8 and the latter at 69 1/2. There were losses of 1 to 1 5/8 in Penna. Mo. Pac. B. and O., Reading, Southern Railway, pfd, Peoples' Gas and Copper. U. S. Steel subsequently sold down to 15 1/2, and the pfd to 60 1-8, a new low record. The market continued feverish and unsettled after the opening.

New York, Sept. 23.—A drop in Amalgamated to 3 1/2 caused renewed selling of all the active stocks and prices in many instances sold lower than in the morning. Pressure was particularly heavy against B. & O. H. R. T. and the Pacific. General Elec. lost 9 points and Westinghouse Elec. 13.

What You Ought To Know About Ohio Tax Laws

A DISCUSSION BY
LAWYER THORNDIKE AND FARMER PERKINS

NUMBER EIGHT (To Be Completed in Ten Numbers).

THE ASSESSMENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

FARMER PERKINS—Since we have been studying the subject of taxation together, I have been struck with a new idea. We will say I live in Vinton county, though I don't, but I have no objections to living there, even though Dan Will and J. M. McGillicuddy are two good citizens there, but Vinton county is the smallest in the state on the tax duplicate. I have ten horses, and I want to know what to return them for taxation. By looking at the grand duplicate for 1929 I find there are 2,407 horses in Vinton county, and they are valued at $112,599. The average value of horses in Vinton county is $46.77. Will be justified in making my return $46.77? I wish to make the return on my conscience, according to the plan of Alfred Kelley, and I wish your advice.

LAWYER THORNDIKE—You would be justified in making such return. You are to fix the values, and it is for you to determine how you will reach the value.

FARMER PERKINS—By the same plan I find that a horse in Hamilton county is only worth $39.55; in Cuyahoga county, $35.19; in Butler county, $47.71; in Adams county, $44.97, and in Tuscarawas county, which has been swept and garnished by the tax insubulator, I find a horse is still worth $50.50, and that a horse in the whole state is worth $48.75. On next tax duplicate horses in Cincinnati will be worth more than $35.19, as a Cincinnati would soon to have a horse less valuable than a Cleveland horse, and to settle the matter would go to the dire extremity of increasing his tax return. But in making out the tax return of specific chattels, what would you advise?

LAWYER THORNDIKE—As a supposition citizen of Vinton county, I would advise that you do not return your horses above the average value of horses in the county the previous year. Each year before making out your return, ascertain the average value of horses in the county the previous year and do not value your horses above that average. If in the meantime horses have increased in value over the previous year add a per cent of their tax value that is, if the tax value is $46.13 per cent of the actual value, and the increase is 25 per cent of real value, add 25 per cent of the tax value of the previous year to the tax value, and this will be just. Deductions should be governed by the same principle. It was never intended by St. Alfred Kelley that there should have been any tax value. He intended the real value should have been the tax value, but the people of the state found they could not endure his system, except in homeopathic doses, and there we have tax values and real values. When we have anything to sell we use the real value, when we have to return the same chattel for taxes, we have a tax value.

FARMER PERKINS—Figuring on carriages in the same way, I find that in 1929 one in Hamilton county was worth $45.52; in Cuyahoga county, $38.09; in Butler county, $32.31; in Vinton county $21.50 and in the whole state, $28.64. Now I suppose that under these facts, being a resident of Vinton county I should return my five carriages at $21.50 each.

LAWYER THORNDIKE—Yes. You are fully justified in this and if you feel any doubt about it consult Lawyer McGillicuddy and he will tell you the same, even though he is a firm believer in the Kelley system.

FARMER PERKINS—When I comes to dogs, I find the Cincinnati dog is only worth $1.13 the Cleveland dog is $3.20, the Butler county dog is $3.50, the Vinton county dog is $4.51, while the state dog is worth $4.42. As I have thirty dogs to return, would I be justified in putting them down at $135.39 for the lot?

LAWYER THORNDIKE—It would be proper for you to do so.

FARMER PERKINS—Inspecting the same tables still further, I find that a watch in Cincinnati was worth $23.69; in Cleveland, $21.10; in Butler county, $15.05; in Vinton county, $11.91 and in the whole state $14.31. Now, as I have three good watches, which cost me $150, would I be justified in returning them altogether at $42.93 the average of my county?

LAWYER THORNDIKE—You would be justified in making such a return. A watch is paid for a watch, it is not a concession to be considered. The state has mentioned this value. It has accepted the returns from Vinton county 148 watches at $11.91 or $17.94 per watch, and has approved and published them. It has collected the tax on them at that figure, and as you would return from a tax point of view, to be better than your neighbors, return your $150 in watches at $42.93. That is between 2 and 3 per cent of their cost, but that is as near as any citizen can afford to live up to the advertisement system, and as the state has accepted that as an average value, you will be justified in making such return.

FARMER PERKINS—I have a piano for which I paid $300. I find that according to the state auditor's report in 1929

a piano in Cleveland was worth $54.40; in Cincinnati, $54.90; in Butler county, $48.80, and in Vinton county, $46.32, and in the whole state at $48.80. Now, shall I return my piano at $46.32, which cost me $300, which is only about 15 per cent of its real value? You must remember that I have believed in the Kelley system, and have always desired to maintain it, and I have a conscience and wish to live according to it.

LAWYER THORNDIKE—You know that I am an agnostic when it comes to the Kelley system. As a theory it is very fine, but in practice it does not work out, and will not. Suppose you had paid $1,000 for your piano, can you get any more use and enjoyment out of it than out of a $300 piano? Can you sell it for any more than if it had cost you $300? Now, let us compare the Kelley law in theory and the Kelley law in practice.

Your ten horses cost you $150 each, and they are worth it, that is $1,500. Your five carriages cost you $150 each, or $750. Your dogs cost you $10 each, or $30; watches, $450; piano, $300. Now I will make out your return according to the Kelley idea and according to the practical idea.

Kelley Idea.
10 horses	$1,500
5 carriages	350
30 dogs	300
3 watches	450
Piano	300
Total	$2,400

Practical Idea.
10 horses	$465.70
5 carriages	122.50
30 dogs	135.30
3 watches	39.12
Piano	48.32
Total	$808.94

Now, as you live in Zaleski Corporation, your taxes on $2,400 will be $75.90, and on $808.94 they will be $18.07, a difference of $57.82 for your conscience. If you make your return at $808.94 it will go through all right and no complaint will ever be made.

FARMER PERKINS—I was brought up to believe that citizens ought to return their property at its true value in money, and it seems to me that I ought to return this property at $2,400 instead of $808.94.

LAWYER THORNDIKE—Of course, you can return the property mentioned at $2,400, and the state will take the taxes on it at that figure, and your neighbors will all return on the other plan, and they will not be disturbed, but if you insist on doing this I suggest that you remove your domicile about 20 miles further east on the R. & O. railroad, to General Grosvenor's town, and become an inmate of a large institution just southeast of Athens known as the hospital for the insane. You ought, if you think best, return the property in question at $808.94, and send your check to the state treasurer as a gift for $57.82. That plan would be more rational than the other, and would not set a precedent which might trouble you for years to come.

FARMER PERKINS—So your idea is that I need not be more honest than my neighbors, and should conform to their ideas, or the ideas of the average, in returning property for taxation.

LAWYER THORNDIKE—No matter how different the actual tax returns may be from the Simon pure St. Kelley ideal, the majority of the taxpayers of the state have given it a construction and established precedents which the state has approved and sanctioned, and unless you wish to pay taxes in excess of your neighbors and in excess of what the state demands and is willing to accept, you must conform to the average values.

FARMER PERKINS—Well, I have found it is one thing to declare a theory and to establish an institution, and it is another thing entirely to construe that theory and put it into practice. I think if Mr. Kelley could revisit the earth and study the workings of his so-called system he would be so disgusted he would advise the people of the state to support the taxation amendment to get rid of it.

An Important New Revenue Measure To Be Formulated by the Ohio State Board of Commerce.

Responsibility for the pending taxation amendment to the constitution makes it the duty of the Ohio State Board of Commerce to assure the people of the state that it will safeguard every interest against undesirable results following the adoption of this amendment by the people, so far as it has sufficient influence to do so, by formulating a general revenue measure and recommending it for enactment by the general assembly. For this purpose the board will employ the assistance of the ablest accountants, economists and counselors it can retain, and it will form, within its membership, a special committee for each class of subjects, to consider the action in the measure affecting their class.

Not alone eradicate, but very few know what will remove them, and prevent recurrences. To these annoyed and embarrassed, I unhesitatingly advise them to go to Wm. M. Melville's drug store, for Doan's Ointment, and use it as directed. After being pestered for twelve years, after expending a lot of money and experimenting with cures innumerable, I am so enthusiastic about the results rendered, that I never lose an opportunity of recommending the ointment, and more than a score of acquaintances in Lima, have reason to be thankful that such a reliable remedy for diseases of the skin and hemorrhoids is so easily obtainable.'"

BUTTERMILK FOR APPENDICITIS.

John B. Deaver, M. D., Professor of Surgery in the University of Pennsylvania, in a lecture before the Pan-American Medical Congress, recommends buttermilk as an excellent diet for appendicitis.

This famous doctor never said a better thing in his life. He should have added that buttermilk is an ideal beverage for all cases of abdominal distress accompanied by fever. The doctors never invented anything so nourishing and grateful to the patient as buttermilk. Even the much-lauded koumiss, which is difficult to make and expensive to procure, falls far short of being as valuable as buttermilk.—Medical Talk.

PEANUTS FOR SLEEPLESSNESS.

Well, now, what next? Peanuts cure insomnia. Fill your stomach full of peanuts just before going to bed and you will sleep good. This is the latest cure for insomnia.

Secretary Wilson recommends it, and the cure is dignified by the fact that it was discovered by one of the scientists in the department of agriculture.

The writer has been a victim of insomnia for many years. If he should eat even one peanut before going to bed it would be at least twenty-four hours before any sleep could be expected. A pint of peanuts before going to bed would give the average person a good push in the direction of the cemetery.

Yet, we may be wrong about it, of course. The day was when we could eat peanuts, but now, although our digestive organs are in splendid order and we have never enjoyed better health or more perfect digestion, yet the task of digesting a pint of peanuts would appall us. We would stand before even a small handful of peanuts with quaking misgivings.

But Secretary Wilson says eat a pint of peanuts fresh roasted before going to bed. In a special to the Record Herald, dated at Washington, July 20, Secretary Wilson, who has been a sufferer from insomnia, is reported to have said:

If you wish to be cured of insomnia eat a pint of freshly roasted peanuts just before retiring. Secretary Wilson assures his friends that this remedy is a sure thing and that a pint of peanuts every night has relieved him from an insomnia with which he has suffered for years. A number of prominent men who have tried the secretarial remedy say that it works like a charm. Ordinary peanuts that are to be bought in a store will not do the work. The goobers must be freshly roasted and a full pint of them consumed. Washed down with a big drink of water they are sure to induce sleep, but the slightest sip of alcoholic beverage neutralizes the effect. The cure is said to be the discovery of one of the scientists in the department of agriculture.

Should any of the readers of Medical Talk who are troubled with insomnia have the courage to test Secretary Wilson's remedy, we would greatly appreciate a report as to the result.—Medical Talk.

Emergency Medicines.

It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies for use in cases of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. A good liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite for its household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and causes the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required, and as it is an antiseptic it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a quick recovery. For sale by all druggists.

THE RIGHT WAY.

Don't jump up the first thing your eyes are open. Remember, that while you sleep the vital organs are at rest. The vitality is lowered and the circulation not so strong. A sudden spring out of bed is a shock to these organs, especially to the heart, as it starts to pumping the blood suddenly.

Take your time in getting up. Yawn and stretch. Wake up slowly. Give the vital organs a chance to resume their work gradually.

Notice how a baby wakes up. It stretches its arms and legs, rubs its eyes and yawns and wakes up slowly. Watch a kitten wake up. First it stretches out one leg, then another, rubs its face, rolls over, and stretches the whole body. The birds do not wake up and fly as soon as their eyes are open, they shake out their wings and stretch their legs—waking up slowly. This is the natural way to wake up. Don't jump up suddenly. Don't be in such a hurry. But stretch and yawn and yawn and stretch. Stretch the arms and legs, stretch the whole body. A good yawn and stretch is better even than a cold bath. It will get you thoroughly awake, and then you will enjoy the bath all the more.

Don't think you haven't time. Don't think you must jump up at the stroke of the clock or the first sound of the alarm. Take time. It only takes a minute. It will keep you young and add years to your life.

Wake up like the baby. Like the kitten. Stretch every muscle in your body. Roll over and yawn and stretch, and stretch and yawn, and you will get up feeling wide awake and the heart and the lungs and the stomach will resume their work without shock or jar, and the bodily functions start off in a normal, healthful manner.—Medical Talk.

WHEN A MAN IS INTOXICATED.

A judge of a United States district court at Burlington, Vt., has just handed down a decision which will be of great interest to bibulous boozers, who have labored under the impression at times that they were in a state of intoxication. For the first time a federal court has passed upon the much mooted question as to what really constitutes intoxication.

It isn't the first time that a court of law has knocked out the dictionary and the scientific men. Even the justice courts in Chicago, have done that. What the etymologists and lexicographers decide is one thing; what the courts decide may be quite a different thing. A man who is under undue or unnatural elation, exhilaration or excitement, as a result of drinking alcoholic stimulants, is supposed to be "intoxicated." Etymologically speaking, he is intoxicated whether he is "dead drunk" or unnaturally excited or elated.

But this is not the view of the United States district court of Vermont. The man who imagines that he has acquired a real "jag" on an investment of a few cents, may not have reached the second degree. He is laboring under an erroneous impression if he thinks he is intoxicated. He is only on the borderland of a plain drunk, within the meaning of the law.

The point arose in connection with an insurance case in which the company refused to pay the policy on the ground that the person insured, who had stated in his application, that he never was intoxicated had frequently been seen in that condition. In an elaborate opinion the court defined three degrees of intoxication: (1) Where the individual is uncommonly vivacious, but retains the possession of his senses, (2) Where the man still retains the use of his senses but has lost memory and judgment; (3) In this, the last stage, the man not only loses possession of his senses but he is no longer conscious of his external relations.

In other words, no man is fully intoxicated until he has taken the "third degree" and he has not taken the third degree until he is completely "laid out." A confused notion as to when a man is intoxicated has led to many disagreeable and embarrassing complications. It is well to have the matter clarified by the learned Vermont jurist.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Sour Stomach. When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. Misunderstood. "Our new butler seems to take things seriously." "Goodness, they told me he was perfectly honest."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs. "Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." H. F. Vorkamp, corner Main and North streets.

Ball Playing Was Witnessed At the Games

Played on the Local Grounds Yesterday.

New Lima Team Played an Excellent Game Against Sidney.

Arcades Lose an Eleven Inning Game to the City Transfer Co.'s Team—Cincinnati Reds Here Today.

Between 1,500 and 2,000 local and visiting fans were divided between the Haller street and League Park base ball grounds yesterday afternoon, and both crowds witnessed some of the fastest ball playing that has been performed on any local diamond this season. The thermometer registered at foot ball temperature, and when a player caught a ball on the bare hand side, it made the audience wince, but nevertheless, the knights of the diamond all had ginger in them, and some very clever work was witnessed in both games.

Tom Railing, the Texas Leaguer, who was expected to play second base for the Lima team against Sidney, at the new grounds on the Hixenbaugh farm, failed to put in an appearance, and Schubert, a former Grand Rapids player, filled his place, and with the exception of Van Anda and "Lettie" Houtz, the remainder of the Lima team was made up of strictly local talent. Frank Seatts played his usual fine game behind the bat, Mert Seatts was a star at third and Kor Seatts appeared at his old position in center field. Harry Lawlor took first base and played an excellent game, considering the fact that he was provided with a cloth mit of the kind that are given away with children's $3 mitts. Rauchart played right field, and covered his territory very well, but was weak at the bat. The star performer of the Lima team, was "Hunt" Welch. He took short stops position and played it like a veteran, taking everything that came within sight. Van Anda pitched an excellent game, and secured a number of assists by holding his position well. There wasn't a weak spot on the Lima team as to fielding, but as to hitting and base running, two or three improvements can be made and made with local talent.

Sidney has a strong, fast salaried team, that has played continually throughout the season, and the show-up made against this aggregation by Lima's once-a-week players yesterday, is sufficient proof that this city can afford a strong team without having to procure outside talent. The score was as follows:

The Reds Here.

The Cincinnati Reds, National League team, arrived in the city, over the C. H. & D. at noon today, and went to the new Lima grounds to meet the new Lima team at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Long Bob Ewing mounted the slab to pitch for the Reds, and in the absence of Tom Railing, who disappointed his Lima friends, Hammond, of Sidney, went into the pitcher's box for the Lima team.

Played Eleven Innings.

The second game of the series between the City Transfer Co.'s team and Andy Westby's Arcades, was played before a big crowd on the Haller street grounds, yesterday afternoon, and it proved to be the most exciting game played between two local teams this season. Schloster and Overy constituted the Transfer team battery, and Wise and Johnson did the battery work for the Arcades. It required 11 innings to decide the contest, and then the score stood: Arcades 5, Transfer team 6.

NOT

Much for the Grand Jury

But the Cases

Of a Civil Nature Continue to Come in.

Court Will Begin for the October Term for Monday Morning

With a List Which Will Keep Judge and Jury Busy—Bar Docket Contains a Long String of Cases.

Common pleas court will begin the October grind next Monday morning, when the grand jury will convene, but from that end, very little is promised at this time. Thanks be to somebody or some situation, there has been few crimes committed during the summer season, and unless the short time which intervenes develops something strenuous, the grand jury will not be weighted down with investigations.

As for the civil docket, the list of pending cases does not offer much of a variation. There will be at least 225 cases for disposal, either by trial or settlement outside of court. When the term closed for the year, after about nine months of continuous session there were but 140 cases standing but they have been coming with the same regularity, and of the fifty filed since Mr. Edwards took hold on the first of August, 22, deal with those who wish to give proof that marriage with them has been a failure.

In Trouble Again. Mickey Holleran is again occupying a cot in the county jail, and the charge of petit larceny stands against him on the docket. The complainant is Joseph Bower, who has, he says, enough evidence to convict Mickey, when his case comes up for trial. He was arrested and bound over to the grand jury. The accused is not a new comer, as he was one of the first prisoners with whom Sheriff Barr had to deal. He was sent to jail Jan. 24, 1922, for grabbing a silver dollar from a little girl who was going to the grocery. Since then he met with an accident at the Erie crossing on Main street, and lost an arm.

Sale Ordered.

George Becker, executor of Philip Louth, deceased, has filed an application for the sale of personal property in Spencer township, and Judge Miller has granted the request.

Marriage Licenses.

Louis Barker, 28, fireman, Toledo, and Elizabeth Reil, 23, of Lima, Rev. Miller to officiate.

In Probate Court.

Committee Refuses to Accept Withdrawal of A. L. Belch, the Putnam County School Superintendent.

After considerable wrangling and squabbling, the anti-Hanna-Hall committee of the Allen county G. O. P., on Saturday evening, turned down H. M. Colvin's aspirations as a candidate on the republican county ticket for sheriff, and selected J. D. Conrath to fill that vacancy on the ticket.

Mr. Conrath was nominated as a candidate for sheriff on the prohibition ticket, which was launched in the field last week, when the prohibitionists of Allen county, held their convention in the assembly room at the court house.

There were some protests against giving the nomination to Conrath, on account of his being a candidate on the prohibition ticket, but he agreed to withdraw from his place on the latter ticket and the "aunties" finally consented to give him the nomination.

Edmund Louis Ley, eldest son of Mrs. Anna Ley, of 327 north Elizabeth street, passed from mortal life at 6:40 o'clock Sunday morning. The demise occurred in the Lake Side Hospital, Cleveland, where he had been seriously sick with an attack of appendicitis for the past five days.

The deceased spent two years in the St. Joseph college at Collegeville, Ind., and left this city two weeks ago for Cleveland, where he had secured employment in Old's Automobile factory. He was an exemplary young man, and during his fatal illness, his spiritual wants were attended to by Rev. P. J. O'Connell, formerly of this city, who is now assistant pastor of St. John's cathedral, in Cleveland. The deceased was born in this city in 1884, and if he had lived until the third day of next month, he would have reached his nineteenth birthday anniversary. To mourn his sad death are his mother, two sisters, the Misses Anna and Emma Ley, and two brothers, Francis and John Ley, all of whom have the sympathy of many in their hour of deep grief. The sorrowing mother, who was at the bedside of her son, when the end came, arrived here with the remains last night at 12:20 o'clock over the Erie. The body will lay in state at the family residence, at 327 north Elizabeth street, until Wednesday morning, when the funeral services will take place from St. Rose church.
